One change made in 2009 was to have Pam A. proof read the Web Issue before it is posted to check for member's last names to ensure anonymity. Anonymity is the responsibility of each member; please remember to remove the Officer/Coordinator identification page of the Newsletter before sharing with your group. I want to thank Pam, Marion, and LaVaughn, they are your trusted servants who proof read each issue of the Newsletter. This is a team effort.

The October issue featured the Forum at the request of the Fellowship Communication Committee. We hope to feature Al-Anon Literature in our June Issue.

The Ad Hoc Committee on the Newsletter's Method of Delivery will have a separate report.

The success of this Newsletter as a service communication tool is dependent our members reading and sharing the Newsletter with other members (ex. Service Sponsor) and their groups. Without communication among members, I know I am back to the isolation I felt when I arrived at the doors of Al-Anon.

I thank you for the opportunity to serve our Area as Newsletter Editor!
