

Here are some Totally Arbitrary Topics to play with:

1. Our next Personal Reader should be titled, Reflections on How Ice Cream Has Made a Difference in the Alcoholic Home.
2. In order to attract more teens to Alateen, should we serve ice cream at Alateen Meetings?
3. In order to attract more people to do service in Al-Anon should we gift a half-gallon of ice cream per month to those who step up to Area service for the first time?
4. In order to get more people to read the NHL newsletter should we have a topic about ice cream?
5. To increase attendance at our Assembly, should one of the Presentations be "How to make ice cream?"
6. Should our District Luncheon at our Assembly host an ice cream social called a "Paint and Lick Party?" to promote greater attendance and a greater feeling of comradery?
