

Literature Coordinator's Report for AWSC Meeting (March 30, 2019)

I hope everyone had a blessed holiday and are surviving the stormy weather we have been experiencing lately. Since the beginning of the New Year, I have been busy with a number of projects relating to Al-Anon. I was flattered to receive a letter from WSO informing me that a review I wrote for a new piece of CAL had been included in the January 2019 issue of The Forum. As Literature Coordinator, I have participated in a number of forums on AFG Connects discussing matters relating to the new materials available to everyone. I have also been participating in a series of Zoom meetings that service our Alateen groups in New York North. Finally, I published my sixth book on Amazon and Barnes and Noble entitled Carrying the Message: Every Picture Tells a Story; a number of the photos have a personal connection to my recovery in Al-Anon.

Have a great winter season, stay warm, and I look forward to seeing everyone at the Spring Assembly in Rochester.

With love and appreciation,

Mike R.
