Report: Kathi D., the former Web Coordinator, and I will meet soon regarding moving the website to a Content Management System website so that future Web Coordinators will be able to edit the website easier. There is currently a glitch where the host removed the “Edit” button for security reasons, and this button will not be replaced until January. Kathi, with her vast computer knowledge, is able to code any changes needed to the website, so I will forward to her anything I cannot do. At the 2025 Spring Assembly/Convention, members submitted comments on improving the website by adding graphics, colors pictures, down arrow selections and to streamline emailed information. If you have any further feedback, please email me at web@nynafg.com. Thank you.
