Copyright Violations- WSO appreciates when members bring it to their attention if a website or organization appears to be violating copyright. WSO can then reach out and make the app/ site aware and this usually takes care of the issue. Sometimes this is not the case and a site or app will not stop their copyright violation. It is then up to a member if they wish to continue to utilize this site knowing they are in violation of Al-Anon traditions, principles, and copyrights.

Preparing for a part in the Spring Convention to encourage writing for 2 publications that are in progress. One new publication is on Sponsorship and the other is on our Relationship with Finances

Attended 2 Zoom meetings with Literature Coordinators from all over the world.

Great to hear different ways these groups are bringing literature to their areas.
